

What are the influences for the
NEW YEAR OF 2011
and how will they impact YOU?

... according to shifting planetary energies and emerging numerology phases ...

$19.95 plus shipping & handling

Reserve your calendar now!

Shipping begins December 1st

- How will the transition into a new Personal Year for 2011 impact you?
- How will the movement of Uranus into Aries affect your Sun sign and those of family and friends?
- How will the shift of energies of Jupiter moving into Aries and then into Taurus in June affect your finances?
- When will the three Mercury retrogrades occur and what are the signs they impact?

You will get a calendar that not only shows the important and key events of the year, but each month shows the days slated for new beginnings, changes and major accomplishments.

Photograph by Karyl Jackson

November

The New Year of 2010

The New Year of 2010 becomes a pivotal year for change, expansion, and creativity. All structures and systems are creating a whole new impact and focus. There is a shift to the astrological signs that are being impacted more than others.

The Personal Year section (page 32) also provides details for each personal year to see the purpose and determine the impact of 2010. We will see a faster pace with more activity and interaction in this transition process as well.

Each calendar month profile provides the universal influence according to the astrological aspects and the numerological impact. The evolution of 2010 is visible through these monthly profiles and also provides additional information about the Mercury Retrograde course corrections that occur.

The Mercury retrograde cycles denote a cosmic window of change and adjustments that often are seen as disorderly, chaotic and dysfunctional. However, these are times of a cosmic course correction. The sign(s) and degrees of these course corrections pinpoint the areas that will go through unexpected change and events that provide this cosmic shift. Knowing the times and influences of these Mercury Retrograde gives us the opportunity to move through these changes gracefully and with awareness of their higher purpose.

SUN SIGN CONNECTION

Overview of 2010 according to Sun Signs

As the major planetary aspects shift creating different aspects to the constellations and their challenges arise and create new themes of focus. Each sun sign responds differently to the shifts happening in 2010. The insights for each sun sign below provide a brief overview of the transitions, options and opportunities available during 2010.

ARIES – Events of 2010 are bringing the tsunami of change into your life. You will find that 2010 has a new feel to it and the energies that you sense are pushing to sweep you into a completely new direction. Saturn in opposition to the Sun brings a sense of responsibility to look seriously at your image and gives you a chance to make some new goals and take responsibility of your relationships and how you have related to others. Pluto in Capricorn provide the doorway that will take you from one environment into another. The equinox becomes the challenges that help us to make the important choices. Aries and Uranus moving into your own sign mid-year bring the major changes into focus. One day you wake up and realize your whole life has changed. This happens once every 54 years with Uranus and the event mid-year will provide the whole life change that you could not have ever seen coming. Uranus provides the sudden changes that resemble an asteroid passing a completely different one than before. Situations are emerging to bring you into your true element.

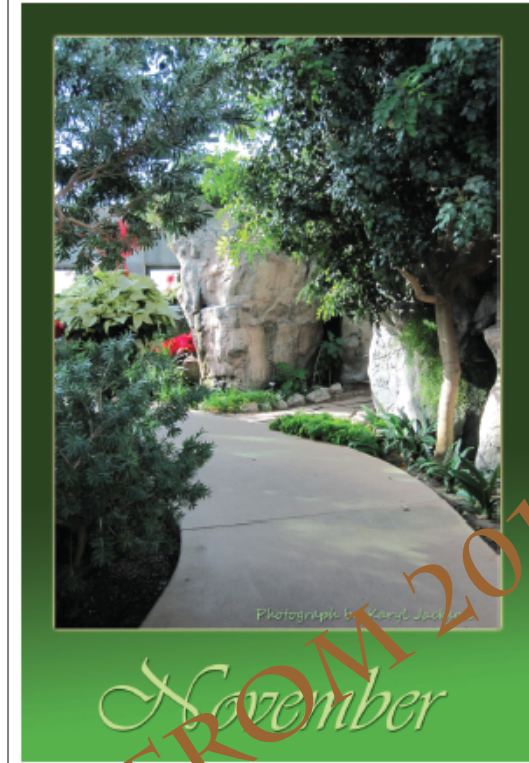

TAURUS – Events of 2010 open the inner doors of your destiny. Situations are unfolding many events that may not make sense at first but you will find that your resolutions have become a strong part with you.

CANCER – Events of 2010 bring many goals and aspirations into clearer range. You will find that your resolutions have become a strong part with you.

PERSONAL YEAR INFLUENCES FOR 2010

April brings changes and moves you forward in the way you haven't anticipated. When Mercury retrograde is playing a part in this cosmic course correction, you will be taking resolutions into a working relationship. As you move out of May and into June it will become very obvious to the fact that certain people will not ever be able to bend or adjust and the misery is self-created. It is a true time you let go of the past as July brings in the Solar Eclipse and opens many doors previously not available. You will find that the pathway forward seems to fit you like a glove and you truly feel like you are in your element.

TRINEZ – This year brings forward your creative process of looking at the palette of colors that you will be using in the various aspects of your life. It is a time that many ideas begin to bubble up to the surface and you have the desire to use your creative approach along with your resources to come up with innovative ideas, and a chance to follow your heart. This brings many people into relationships and also takes many people out of restrictive relationships. This brings many people to shift their career and point themselves toward a better fit when you change their home environment to combined with a place that is better for unleashing innovative energy.

2010 Trends & Influences

Pluto in Capricorn will see many structures and systems changed through reform or being completely dismantled due to the lack of accountability and responsibility. All structures and systems use of power and authority will come under great scrutiny and the Pluto in Capricorn era evolves.

Personally, the focus will be on our own career and business pursuits and how our own personal ethics, motives, and efforts impact others around us. With a great effort within the career environments, many have changes careers and find themselves moving into a new direction. The emphasis for each person will be to utilize the Capricorn abilities within a specific direction and purpose. The transition into Pluto in Capricorn era has opened up the appropriate environmental changes according to the emphasis of our core beliefs and actions.

As 2010 begins we all walk into a new environment, complete with new props, new people, new scripts and a new purpose. Because Mercury retrograde in Capricorn to begin the New Year, many elements of this same Capricorn focus become a major part of the changes during the Mercury Retrograde. Capricorn deals with career, business and accomplishments. We will find that the Mercury retrograde from December 26, 2009 through January 15, 2010 provides a bridge of our transition into the New Year of 2010, setting a new pace, we move into our direction for 2010 and opportunities for ideas and creativity become the energy that moves us forward into a new environment.

November 2010 Overview

Numerology Profile:

November is universally a FIVE' month, opening the previously closed doors. Change, breakthrough, freedom is a common theme as humanity is ready to embrace the generational changes that have become the beacon to call each of us into action. With transitions moving events and circumstances toward a new horizon, a renewed energy push reflect the cosmic changes prompting new directions. Situations are finding a way to jump into light speed at mid month. The emphasis on change and major transition is keeping us moving forward to move through situations that are taking us into new and different directions.

Astrology Profile:

November is universally a FIVE' month, emphasizing change, breakthrough and freedom. November opens the door that we have forgotten has been open to us. We begin early in the month to venture toward the open door and to utilize the opportunities that have been set before us that pull us into new directions. The New Moon on November 5th provides the opening in Scorpio to look at situations from a deeper perspective and to utilize our cosmic connection to unfold the situations that have given us freedom. This cosmic freedom comes at the beckoning of letting us loose from an old way of life. This gives us many options as Neptune turns direct on November 5th.

As the North Node reaches 3 Capricorn and Pluto reaches 3 Capricorn, the cosmic clock takes the events and moves them into a new day. The opening that draws into our life beckons our inner connection to be an active participant. Jupiter turns direct at 27 Pisces and Venus turns direct at 27 Taurus. These two planets are square, which opens the doorway into a new life. The freedom from the old way of life, the entrance into the new may or may not be what we have wanted, but here it is, providing us a ticket into a new world. Both of these planets turning direct open bank new doors that we have not had in a long time.

Mercury connects with action-oriented Mars on November 20th, bringing new ideas to our own actions. In fact that Mercury and Mars are at 16 Sagittarius points to the alignment of our ideas with action to join with our goals and actions. This level of events all coordinates with North Node and Pluto both being at 3 Capricorn for most of the month.

The North Node and Pluto together become a strong energy pushing us forward toward the right direction for this time, and set the pace for this magnetic connection all month long. North Node becomes the prevailing wind and Pluto provide the outer circumstances, the impetus and the power to move into new directions, as related to business, career and business ventures.

Mercury come into this connection, making it a very powerful trio in early December, opening the field of communications for our next phase of instructions. Mercury is preparing for important transitions that will be occurring within the retrograde. Moving from Capricorn back into Sagittarius gives us the chance to revise our goals and aspirations.

Days of New Beginning: November 6th, November 14th, and November 23rd
Days of Change and Spontaneity: November 8th, November 18th, and 27th
Days of Business Activity: November 3rd, November 12th, 21st and 30th.

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			1	2	3	4
				Hanukkah
5	New Moon	6	7	8	9	10
11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
		21	22	23	24	25
		Winter Solstice Full Moon Lunar Eclipse				Christmas Day
26	27	28	29	30	31

36 PAGES
 3 pgs Universal and Planetary Overview
 24 pages of monthly trends and events
 2 pages of impact according to each sun sign connection
 3 pages for each personal year and highlighted months
GREAT GIFT FOR FAMILY AND FRIENDS

The Alpha Life Trends Calendar Provides a Snapshot of 2011

- Major Planetary Aspects
- Numerology Profile
- Mercury Retrograde
- New and Full Moon
- Days that emphasize the green light for new beginnings
- Days that emphasize the winds blowing in change, requiring spontaneity
- Days that drop kick you into business activity, planned or unplanned

Set your goals, plan your year.

This calendar provides unique and proprietary information not found elsewhere as the combination of astrology and numerology create a complete synopsis of each month and the year.

Chart your Life Journey

2011

The Monthly Synopsis

The planetary aspects that create the energies, purpose and theme for the month.

The numerology provides information to use as a sequence of purpose, theme of efforts for accomplishments and a focus of qualities to strengthen.

Mercury Retrograde adds information impacting the month. Written within the synopsis an assessment of purpose and theme for the course corrections and revisions of plans.

Additionally an outlook of energy shifts:

Days of New Beginnings:

January 5th, January 14th, and January 23th

Days of Change and Spontaneity:

January 9th, January 18th, January 27th

Days of Business Activity:

January 3rd, January 12th, January 21st,
January 30th

2011 OVERVIEW

The New Year of 2011 brings you not only a shift of energies, but a new year of tasks, projects and accomplishments. You walk into 2011 to find projects you are passionate to build with your innovative talent, your efforts and applying your goals and aspirations into accomplishments. Situations begin with new requirements to align your inner and outer Self; applying your passion, innovation and perfection to the tasks and projects dropped into your life. The Mercury retrograde completing at the end of 2010 brings in a new set of goals and aspirations that set the pace for your transition into the New Year. 2011 is the year when you build the life you desire, expressing your heart, planning your projects and organizing your disciplined efforts. Your natural love of accomplishments will point your efforts into new directions, revising your sense of purpose and igniting your passion.

ALPHA LIFE TRENDS

Karyl Jackson

Illuminating Your Divine Purpose through Numerology and Astrology

P.O. Box 818 Placitas, NM 87043 505.771.8878

www.AlphaLifeTrends.com

Copyright © 2010 - 2011 Alpha Life Trends All Rights Reserved